

Anti - Social Behaviour Team

Two members of the Community Safety Team form the Council ASB Team, which is based at Bath Police Station in Manvers Street.

Covering the whole of Bath and North East Somerset, the team's priority is to reduce anti social behaviour, support victims, stop repeat victims, help communities feel safer and provide respite to communities suffering due to the anti-social behaviour of others.

ASB Team success stories

Bath beggar gets ASBO ban on asking for cash

Bath Chronicle 10 February 2011

A persistent beggar from Bath has been given an ASBO banning her from asking members of the public for money for 3 years. She has appeared in front of the courts on no fewer than eight occasions on begging-related offences of varying degrees of seriousness.

ASBO bans yob from takeaway

Bath Chronicle 24 December 2009

A violent teenage troublemaker from Keynsham has been given an anti-social behaviour order banning him from a Chinese takeaway. The order will run for two years.

'We've got our lives back!'

Bath Chronicle 3 June 2010

After suffering for months, the 'night-mare' is over for people living in a Radstock street after a self-confessed heroin addict was evicted from her home under anti-social behaviour laws.

