Dear Ms Savine,

Thank you for submitting revised Domestic Homicide Review (DHR) reports for Bath and North East Somerset to the Home Office DHR Quality Assurance (QA) Panel.

Following your comments, I asked the DHR Team to check the versions of the reports that were considered by the QA Panel and I was assured that they were the ones received on 17 June 2016 at 14.48 hours. Indeed, I was shown the email from Mark Hayward which is marked in bold "Please ignore previous email titled 'DHR final papers'".

I would like to thank you for considering the feedback provided by the QA Panel. The revised reports now address all the issues raised by the Panel, who were particularly grateful for the clarification in your letter in relation to the specific points that they identified.

I am pleased to inform you that the QA Panel is content for you to publish the report.

I would be grateful if you could email us at DHREnquiries@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk and provide us with the URL to the report when it is published.

I have noted your comments in relation to providing us with a final copy of reports in cases where the Panel does not need to review revised versions of reports and will consider the matter further.

Thank you again for your participation in the process and the considerable work that you and your colleagues have put into the report in this case.

Yours sincerely

Christian Papaleontiou

Chair of the Home Office DHR Quality Assurance Panel
