A voice for the unrepresented

In this, our concluding factsheet you will find some final information. We give you some pointers on dealing with HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) and a summary of where to find other guidance, which on the assumption that you are happy using a computer for basic tasks (even if you are unable or unwilling to run your payroll on it!) includes useful internet links to more help. You can find the other factsheets in this series and an introductory guide at: www.disabilitytaxguide.org.uk/about/resources

Employing someone for the first time – basic guides

You can find basic information on employing staff for the first time on GOV.UK: <https://www.gov.uk/employing-staff>

HMRC has a news page which brings together PAYE news items and may help you keep on top of all your PAYE tasks throughout the year: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/payee-news-for-employers>

Employer Bulletin

This is published every two months, giving employers the latest employer and payroll information. Register for the email alert service:

www.gov.uk/government/publications/hmracs-employer-bulletin

Telephone Helpline

The HMRC New Employer Helpline, 0300 200 3211, is especially for new or inexperienced employers. It is open from 8am to 8pm, Monday to Friday, and from 8am to 4pm Sat. The Textphone number is 0300 200 3212.

Your rights and obligations

Your Charter explains what you can expect from HMRC and what they expect from you.

For more information see www.gov.uk/government/publications/your-charter

Care and Support Employers HMRC Webinar

A webinar is a presentation that you can view over the internet and HMRC sometimes hold them to explain the issues you need to consider when taking on your first personal assistant. If you can't make the live webinars then they are usually recorded so that you can watch them later. They also have webinars on other employer topics: www.gov.uk/government/news/webinars-emails-and-videos-on-employing-people

Where can I find day to day payroll guidance?

Online process

For help with RT1 payroll go to: www.gov.uk/business-tax/payee

Paper process

HMRC have the following guides for reporting PAYE in real time which they will send out by post:

RT6: A guide to filling in forms RT2, RT3 and RT5.

RT7: Guidance for Employers exempt from filing Real Time Information online.

The following helpbooks are also available in hard copy from the Employer Orderline:

CWG2 – Employer Further Guide to PAYE and NICs (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/cwg2-further-guide-to-payee-and-national-insurance-contributions>)

SL3 – Student Loan Deduction Tables (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/sl3-student-loan-deduction-table>)

These helpbooks are not needed by all employers and are only needed for more complex payrolls or where Student Loans deductions are needed.

For more information on obtaining help and guidance with the paper filing process, see our website.

Dealing with HMRC

HMRC can use a certain format to communicate with you, e.g. Braille or Text Relay, and provide specialist services and facilities for customers with disabilities or particular needs, for example:

- If you are deaf, hard of hearing or have a speech impairment or have difficulty using the phone
- If you are blind or partially sighted
- If you are a wheelchair user
- If English is not your first language
- If you need a home visit or if you need help completing forms
