

Councillor Role Descriptions

Councillors come from all walks of life bringing a rich variety of experience into their role of representing local communities. Given the variety of backgrounds, councillors will naturally fulfil this role in slightly different ways.

This document provides a set of role descriptions for elected members in Bath and North East Somerset Council. It has been written to provide clarity for councillors about their roles and responsibilities. It will also help officers, partner organisations and the public better understand what is expected of a councillor and of members with specific roles.

Role descriptions are provided for the following:

- Councillor
- Cabinet member
- Leader of the Council
- Deputy leader of the Council
- Chair of the Council
- Chair of a Policy Development and Scrutiny Panel
- Member of a Policy Development and Scrutiny Panel
- Chair of a Regulatory Committee
- Member of a Regulatory Committee

The role descriptions are underpinned by the Council's six values. Whilst change is inevitable, our values should act as a constant over the coming years. These strongly influence what we do, how we approach our work and the type of Council we want to be. Overall, our six values give the guidance and clarity that we all commit to a common code of practice and demonstrate these qualities when carrying out our roles and responsibilities as councillors and officers. We believe our collective aspirations and positive action will help us to successfully achieve our vision.

The core values of Bath and North East Somerset Council and Bath and North East Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group are:
