

The future of Entry Hill

Bath & North East Somerset Council are inviting the community's ideas for the future of Entry Hill.

Please share your thoughts and ideas on the future of the site. These ideas will contribute towards a future Masterplan for Entry Hill, in line with the ambitions for the space set out in the Council's adopted Greener Places Plan.

Did you know?

The site is 13 hectares, approximately the size of 18 football pitches

The site was used for landfill 1970-1989, then as a 9-hole golf course until 2019

There are over 40 species of trees & shrubs across 6 habitats

From its highest to lowest point, the site drops roughly 57m, which is around 8m taller than Bath Abbey

Until the 1970s Mill Stream, later named Lyn Brook, ran through the site

Why do you come here?

What works well?

How often do you come here?

What do you not like?