Section A: Successful Local Bids

A local Christmas Tree collection has raised more than £40,000 to support those being cared for in Dorothy House hospice.

The charity ran their biggest annual Christmas tree collection fund-raiser in partnership with the Just Helping Charity.

Dorothy House supporters and volunteers picked up more than 3,500 trees between January 10th and 12th from residents who had booked a collection in return for a donation to charity.

Students from Lackham Agricultural College and Greenhill Tree Care will be helping to turn the trees into chipping for compost. After costs, 90% of the money raised will go to Dorothy House and the remaining 10% to other charities.

Dorothy House plans to expand the Christmas tree collection into more postcodes in January 2021. Details will be available from late November.

Tesco Bags of Help	The Tesco Bags of Help Community Grants programme has been closed for a while as Tesco PLC has been reviewing the scheme. It has now reopened with amended funding levels, extended voting timescales and slightly

	narrower eligibility criteria. The overarching aim of the scheme is to support local community groups, organisations, charities, schools and other not-for-profit organisations through awards for equipment, activities and refurbishing or developing buildings and outdoor spaces. Proposals can be a stand-alone project or a discrete, self-contained part of a larger scheme or part of a phased project. Three community projects in each local area will be voted on by customers in Tesco stores throughout the UK, with projects changing every 3 months (before the review, projects were changed every two months). This will require the postcode of the nearest Tesco store to the proposed project. Once the Eligibility Quiz has been completed, successful applicants will be provided with a link to the full application form. The applications are then assessed by Groundwork to ensure that they are eligible. This will be followed up by Tesco shortlisting groups. The final projects will then go forward to the in-store vote. For further information visit the Tesco Community Grants webpages, where some useful tips on how to apply for a grant can also be found. https://tescobagsofhelp.org.uk/tesco-community-grants/
Patagonia Europe Environmental Grants	Grants up to £9,100 for small grassroots activist environmental organisations in the UK and Ireland working to protect local habitats and frontline communities through bold, original actions. Patagonia is a privately held American outdoor clothing and gear company that is based in the United States and operates internationally in several different countries, including the UK and Ireland. Patagonia believes that “local battles to protect a specific stand of forest, a stretch of river, an indigenous wild species or a community from a polluting refinery are both effective at building public support and confronting larger, more complicated issues - like climate change, biodiversity loss and environmental justice”. As such, it provides grants for grassroots initiatives in

	the UK and the Republic of Ireland that are addressing these issues. Patagonia’s Europe funding programme supports innovative work that addresses the root causes of the environmental crisis and seeks to protect both the environment and affected communities. Patagonia is keen to receive applications from innovative and unusual projects that are prepared to take risks. In particular, the funding is meant to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Encourage work that brings underrepresented communities to the forefront of the environmental movement and defend communities whose health and livelihoods are threatened by environmental exploitation, and</li> <li>• Support multi-pronged campaigns that push for greater environmental protections and force the government to abide by its own laws.</li> <li>• Projects should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be action-oriented.</li> <li>• Focus on root causes.</li> <li>• Have a clear strategy.</li> <li>• Identify specific goals and objectives that can be effectively measured to evaluate success.</li> <li>• Build public involvement and civic engagement.</li> <li>• Work to build an inclusive and diverse environmental movement, and</li> <li>• Take place within the United Kingdom or Ireland.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Non-governmental not-for-profit organisations in the UK and/or Ireland may apply for a grant of up to £9,100, although this may vary according to exchange rates as the maximum grant is equivalent to $12,000. Please note that only one proposal from an organisation will be considered per year. The Europe Grants Program has two deadlines this year: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Friday 31st January 2020 (for a response by the end of June), and</li> <li>2. Tuesday 30th June (for a response by the end of October).</li> </ol> Applications should be submitted online via the Patagonia website. (The International Grants can be found in the Grant Guidelines/Apply for a Grant section.) If the work is located near one of Patagonia's retail stores, the proposal will be reviewed by store employees. If the work is not located near one of Patagonia's retail stores, the proposal will be reviewed by an Employee Grants Council at the company headquarters. https://eu.patagonia.com/gb/en/environmental-grants.html

Section D: Forthcoming Funds (Details Awaited)

Name of Fund	Description
The Hargreaves Foundation	A new grant making trust to offer grants to UK charitable organisations working with disadvantaged children through education and sports projects (please note the Foundation does not appear to be open to applications yet). The following item has recently been reported in the national media: “A UK billionaire is to start a £100million charitable foundation in order to support children from underprivileged backgrounds. Peter Hargreaves, a 73-year-old who made his millions after he set up Hargreaves Lansdown 35 years ago, will start the charitable foundation to fund children from underprivileged backgrounds and disabilities through education and sport. His financial service business has become the leading investment platform in the UK. Mr Hargreaves said his family wanted to “make a positive and significant contribution outside of the world of work”. Our focus, through the foundation, will be on seeking to improve the lives of young individuals, whether with disabilities or from underprivileged backgrounds, and to assist them in leading the fullest and happiest lives possible. As a family we have all benefited from education and our love of participatory sport.” The Hargreaves Foundation is newly listed on the Charity Commission website with the following objectives: (a) To advance the physical and mental health and well-being of individuals living with disabilities of any description, in particular but not exclusively by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need, charities and/or organisations that provide or assist in the provision of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Information, advice, education and support designed to raise awareness and enable individuals living with disabilities to be self-sufficient.</li> <li>• Financial assistance for individuals living with disabilities.</li> <li>• Medical treatment, care and rehabilitation for individuals living with disabilities.</li> <li>• Equipment, mobility aids, prosthetics, facilities and services for individuals living with disabilities, and</li> <li>• Recreational, sporting and leisure time activities and facilities with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.</li> </ul> (b) To advance in life and help people who have need by reason of their youth, infirmity, poverty or social and economic circumstances by providing

The Prince’s Countryside Fund	The Prince’s Countryside Fund is currently conducting a review of the grants awarded to date and will use this to shape their grant making strategy for the future. They expect the revised strategy and grant programme to be launched in January 2020. Their grants aim to sustain rural communities, improve the prospects of viability for farm and rural businesses, and support aid delivery in an emergency and build resilience. You can sign up to their newsletter to find out when they next open for grants. https://www.princescountrysidefund.org.uk/grant-giving-programme/grant-programme
Funding to help tackle Loneliness	The government has launched a £2 million fund to help organisations tackling loneliness across the country. The funding aims to support frontline, grassroots organisations that bring people together and help them make friends. These could include community cafés, street parties, coffee mornings or local walking groups. The investment will help small organisations promote themselves more widely, help fund the use of suitable venues and accessible transport, and bring established groups together to best serve local people at risk of loneliness. The funding marks one year since the publication of the Government’s Loneliness Strategy, which outlined almost 60 commitments to end loneliness. This included funding 126 projects through its £11.5 million Building Connections Fund – the first Government fund ever dedicated to reducing loneliness, jointly funded with the Co-op Foundation and National Lottery Community Fund. Further details on the funding application process, including eligibility and when it will open, will follow in due course.

The grant can fund the cost of building acquisition, repair and conservation work and associated fees as well as work required to enable ‘meanwhile’ use or change of use, including services and fit-out. They will typically include a variety of uses, including retail, and be recognised by local people as their town centre or high street. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Distinct towns centres and high streets within large cities, and</li> <li>• Rural settlements that are notable centres within a district, providing services for a wide hinterland that includes smaller villages. (Small village high streets will not qualify.)</li> </ul> Eligible locations must already be the focus of a wider strategy or initiative - a place-based initiative - which aims to revitalise the high street or town centre and is likely to be led by the local authority, neighbourhood planning group or a community-led organisation, such as a civic society or community land trust. Eligible buildings must meet the following criteria: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Potential for positive change - A change of use and/or change of ownership is proposed, or the building has been recently acquired. Projects should have the potential to deliver heritage and economic and social outcomes, including job and business creation, an increase in volunteering, people developing new skills, increased pride of place, and improved wellbeing. 2. Ownership - organisations should have, or be intending to acquire, the freehold or a long lease (at least 25 years) on the project building. (In exceptional cases AHF may be able to consider projects with a shorter lease but this must be discussed before application.) 3. Heritage value - the building should be of special architectural or historic interest, i.e. nationally listed Grade I, II or II*; included in a local list maintained by the local authority; or, if it is unlisted, located within a conservation area. In this last case, applicants will need to show that the building makes a positive contribution to the character and appearance of the conservation area. Unlisted buildings not in conservation areas will be considered for support if a convincing case can be made for their heritage value to local people. Charitable organisations and social enterprises (see list above) may apply for a grant of up to £350,000 for up to 80% of the cost of work involved (applicants with match funding in place are likely to be prioritised). 			overall maximum funding available for projects is £500,000 (made up of £150,000 in development funding and £350,000 capital funding). It is expected that up to 15 grants will be awarded for project delivery (capital work including repair and conversion of buildings) over the four-year period of the programme. Projects should be completed within three years. Funding is not available for Local authorities and other public-sector bodies, other than Parish and Town Councils (unless applying on behalf of an organisation still in formation). Please note: grants cannot be used to fund work that is being grant-aided through a Future High Streets Fund or Heritage Action Zone programme. These strands of funding cannot partner each other but will fund projects that are complementary. These strands of funding may also separately fund different stages of one project. In order to apply, potential applicants should first submit an online enquiry form. They will then be contacted by a member of the AHF team, who will confirm their eligibility and invite them to complete the online application form on the AHF website. AHF strongly encourages applicants to discuss any potential application with the relevant AHF Support Officer for your area before submitting an application.

Environmental Grants	Patagonia	https://eu.patagonia.com/gb/en/environmental-	Grants up to £9,100 for small grassroots activist environmental organisations in the UK and	31 st January and 30 th June

		grants.html	Ireland working to protect local habitats and frontline communities through bold, original actions. Patagonia is a privately held American outdoor clothing and gear company that is based in the United States and operates internationally in several different countries, including the UK and Ireland. Patagonia believes that “local battles to protect a specific stand of forest, a stretch of river, an indigenous wild species or a community from a polluting refinery are both effective at building public support and confronting larger, more complicated issues - like climate change, biodiversity loss and environmental justice”. As such, it provides grants for grassroot initiatives in the UK and the Republic of Ireland that are addressing these issues. Patagonia’s Europe funding programme supports innovative work that addresses the root causes of the environmental crisis and seeks to protect both the environment and affected communities. Patagonia is keen to receive applications from innovative and unusual projects that are prepared to take risks. In particular, the funding is meant to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Encourage work that brings underrepresented communities to the forefront of the environmental movement and defend communities whose health and livelihoods are</li> </ul>	for 2020

Please note that only one proposal from an organisation will be considered per year. Applications should be submitted online via the Patagonia website. (The International Grants can be found in the Grant Guidelines/Apply for a Grant section.) If the work is located near one of Patagonia's retail stores, the proposal will be reviewed by store employees.

Bags of Help	Tesco	https://tescobagsofhelp.org.uk/tesco-community-grants/	The overarching aim of the scheme is to support local community groups, organisations, charities, schools and other not-for-profit organisations through awards for equipment, activities and refurbishing or developing buildings and outdoor spaces. Proposals can be a stand-alone project or a discrete, self-contained part of a larger scheme or part of a phased project. Three community projects in each local area will be voted on by customers in Tesco stores throughout the UK, with projects changing every 3 months (before the review, projects were changed every two months). Following the vote, grants will be awarded as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1st place - up to £2,000.</li> <li>• 2nd place - up to £1,000.</li> <li>• 3rd place - up to £500.</li> </ul> Match funding is not required as the scheme can fund 100% of the total project costs A wide range of not-for-profits in the UK may apply so long that they have a governing document and a bank account.	Ongoing

			Applications and reapplications may be made at any time. To begin an application, organisations are required to complete an Eligibility Quiz. This will require the postcode of the nearest Tesco store to the proposed project. Once the Eligibility Quiz has been completed, successful applicants will be provided with a link to the full application form. The applications are then assessed by Groundwork to ensure that they are eligible. This will be followed up by Tesco shortlisting groups. The final projects will then go forward to the in-store vote. For further information visit the Tesco Community Grants webpages, where some useful tips on how to apply for a grant can also be found.

Giving Feedback to Funder (from an article by Emma Beeston)	It is difficult to give honest feedback to funders about their application processes. Nobody wants to risk criticising them – wouldn't that be biting the hand that feeds you? Grant Advisor has come over from California to the UK - described as TripAdvisor for funders, applicants can now rate and review funders and the public-nature of the scores should help drive change through transparency. They are currently running a pilot in the UK so do join in if you have applied to any of these funders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Esmee Fairbairn Foundation.</li> <li>• Two Ridings Community Foundation.</li> <li>• Paul Hamlyn Foundation.</li> <li>• Corra Foundation.</li> <li>• Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust.</li> <li>• Indigo Trust.</li> <li>• National Lottery Community Fund.</li> <li>• Lloyds Bank Foundation.</li> <li>• Bishop Radford Trust.</li> <li>• Devon Community Foundation, or the</li> <li>• City Bridge Trust.</li> </ul>	https://grantadvisor.org.uk/

	At an event in the UK this summer, 50 fund raisers were asked what annoys them most about application processes. Their responses are summarized below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Word counts – this was the most frequent response e.g. “word restrictions along with wanting complex answers”.</li> <li>• A lack of response – whether this was a lack of feedback, not being available to discuss bids or not hearing back e.g. “not getting a ‘no’ just hearing nothing”</li> <li>• The sheer length, complexity and diversity of information requested e.g. “the large amount of information you have to give e.g. 3 references”.</li> <li>• Being asked for unnecessary information – bugbears were being asked to submit documents available online via charity commission website and being asked financial questions that are covered in the accounts.</li> <li>• Poor design of the process - e.g. “unwieldy application forms”, “badly formatted word documents”, “saying they fund core costs but the application form is geared for projects”, “repetitive questions” and “when the IT doesn’t work”.</li> <li>• Lack of clarity – e.g. “when a funder gives you very little information about what they like to fund” which is made worse when they won’t talk to you to clarify their criteria and requirements.”</li> </ul>

The Village Survival	In 2019, The Prince’s Countryside Fund published ‘The Village Survival Guide’	https://www.princescountryside.org/

Guide	which the National Association of Local Councils also had input into. It features case histories, checklists and practical advice, and is intended to help those living in the countryside to utilise the talents available in their own communities. The guide references how working with your local (parish and town) councils can deliver great initiatives: such as a volunteer car service which has been a lifeline for villagers getting to medical appointments and for those who don't qualify for non-emergency patient transport, 'car clubs' which has helped connect schools, elderly and the disabled around the villages, and the Good Neighbours Scheme which brings volunteers in touch with residents who need support, such as gardening, DIY or even just befriending to help tackle loneliness. Code of Fundraising Practice	A new version of the Code of Fundraising Practice came into effect in October 2019. The changes are designed to make it easier for fundraisers, charities and third-party organisations to understand the standards expected of them when fundraising. It is also designed to be easier for the public to navigate. The changes include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Consolidation of the former code, rulebooks and legal appendices with all standards now in the one code</li> <li>• Restructuring of the standards into three parts to help users more easily identify which standards apply depending on the type of fundraising they do</li> <li>• Clarification of where there are differences in law in England and Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland</li> <li>• Clearer language, following an independent review by the Plain English campaign, which gave the code a Crystal Mark standard</li> </ul> Complaints will continue to be considered against the version of the code in effect at the time of the incident. The new code will then be used as the basis for making decisions about any incidents that take place from October onwards.	https://www.fundraisingregulator.org.uk/code

Airbnb invites charities to run social impact experiences to fundraise	Accommodation-sharing service Airbnb is inviting charities to offer 'social impact experiences' through its platform to encourage travellers to engage in social causes. The experiences are both educational and a new way for the charity to raise funds. Airbnb will promote the experiences offered by charities via its site. Travellers visiting a particular location will see these experiences listed for them as a relevant local attraction to make their stay even more rewarding. Experiences are open to anyone, not just those who have booked accommodation through Airbnb. In the UK the Social Impact Experience is open to registered charities but there are certain eligibility and quality requirements before an experience is accepted for the programme. The type of experience is entirely down to the charity. Indeed, many charities will already offer something similar, like a guided tour of their theatre, a cycle-ride around their wetlands, a meet the research scientists event, or a visit to their animal sanctuary.	https://www.airbnb.co.uk/b/social-impact-host

Reading the Funding Guidelines: Why You Don't and Why You Should - Advice from Emma Beeston	Ask any funder their top reason for turning down an application and they will say “because the applicant did not read the guidance”. This has sadly been the case for the many years, despite all the training sessions and guides out there for fundraisers. Which begs the question: why don't people read the guidance? Or if they do read it, why do they go ahead and apply anyway even though they don't fit with the criteria. These are the 7 reasons I have come up with. They fall into three categories: one is excusable once; three are operational and the final three relate to a mindset. Not found: People don't always know to look for any guidance. If someone is new to bid writing, then this is fair enough. Hopefully this will be pointed out to them early on and then there is no excuse for making this mistake twice. Unclear: People can struggle with reading and so it is up to funders to help with this – after all they are trying to fund work that achieves social change not testing literacy. The guidance is not always clear or consistent and can be jargon-rich.

Some funders help by being available to talk to potential applicants or using films and webinars to explain their criteria and funding process.

Too tedious: Reading lists of we do fund ... and we don't fund ... do not make for riveting reading. WikiHow has a whole list of ways to tackle boring books and whilst I find their line "think of getting through a boring book as training for life" an incredibly depressing thought, the suggestions they have to take breaks, read away from interruptions, when most awake etc. are all useful.

Too time consuming: Of course, everyone is busy and finding time to read is hard. But this is a classic case of spend time now to save it later. You will save yourself an awful lot of wasted effort if you find out that you are not eligible and there is no point applying.

Disregarded: Treating applications as the end goal can be perpetuated by actual targets set for fundraisers for applications made. Or it can come from the sense that the Trustees and others will judge you if you have not populated a pipeline with many bids. The focus should always be on being effective – so your applications have a good chance of success – and not just volume.

Overlooked: The complacency effect happens where you think you know the guidance already or that you were funded before so must still fit. This can be a mistake where criteria and priorities have changed.

Ignored: Fundraisers are usually wonderfully optimistic and resilient souls and so hope sometimes wins over judgment. There is a danger of putting in a speculative application just in case it might be considered and in other cases, passion clouds reality. Because the bid writer is so excited about their work and the difference it makes, they assume that funders will be equally blown away and will make an exception. If you think this applies to you, try a phone call – but only after you've read the guidance.

Whatever the reason, the advice remains the same – before spending time on writing a bid, you must read the guidance and if you don't fit with the criteria, don't just go ahead and apply anyway. Put your precious time into another application, where you have a much better chance of being funded.

The social sector - supporting charities and social enterprises explains the government’s approach to the core of civil society i.e. the social sector of charities, voluntary organisations and social enterprises including mutuals.</li> <li>4. The private sector - promoting business, finance and tech for good outlines the role of business, finance and tech in civil society.</li> <li>5. The public sector - ensuring collaborative commissioning explains how the government sees the future role of civil society organisations in the delivery of public services.</li> </ol>	https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/civil-society-strategy-building-a-future-that-works-for-everyone

New Bill enabling a CIC to convert to a CIO.	In 2018, Parliament passed legislation that enabled a Community Interest Company (CIC) and charities with company structures to convert more quickly into a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). CIOs, which allow charities to enter into contracts as corporate entities with limited liability for trustees and members, were included in the Charities Act 2006. After lengthy delays, they finally became a new legal structure in 2013. Further information about how a charity structure can be changed is available on the GOV.UK website.	https://www.gov.uk/guidance/change-your-charity-structure

How to Decide on Priorities	GOV.UK has published a guide on how to identify and decide on priorities. Here’s what the introduction to the briefing says: “There’s always a long list of things you could work on when developing a product or service. But you’ll usually have a limited amount of time, materials or skills available. Prioritising what you should work on and in what order is an important part of delivering good products and services.” The item also includes a link to “20 Product Prioritisation Techniques: A Map and Guided Tour”.	https://www.gov.uk/service-manual/agile-delivery/deciding-on-priorities

Lloyds Bank launches £500 million Growth Fund	Lloyds Banking Group has opened a £500 million pound loan fund to help British businesses finance equipment. Essentially, this is the same £500 million scheme the bank opened a couple of years ago for the agricultural sector, but now its remit has been widened to include manufacturing, construction and transport. The scheme targets small and medium-sized companies which banks froze out of credit following the financial crisis. The bank said the fund will deliver quick access to finance by allowing companies to spread the cost of assets over their lifetime, enabling big investments that don't eat into working capital. The government sees small and medium-sized companies as key to unlocking higher productivity, which has fallen back to below pre-crisis levels this year, and to the success of the UK economy post-Brexit. These businesses have struggled to invest in the decade since the financial crisis as banks have shied away from lending to smaller businesses.	Interested parties can phone either of the Bank's two 24-hour helpline/contact numbers: 0345 300 0000 or 01733 347 007. PLEASE NOTE: these are not Freephone numbers – calls are charged at a local rate. https://international.lloydsbank.com/products-and-services/investments/funds/msf/growth/
Fundraising Advice – Hold a Fast Party	The idea behind a Fast Party is not to plough through the buffet at a party as quickly as possible, but to 'fast' – as in abstaining from eating. A Fast Party is actually a non-event, whereby people are invited to a party that isn't going to take place. This type of fundraiser works particularly well with well-known charitable organisations with a strong supporter base either locally or nationally. Guests are asked to go without one meal on a specific date and to contribute the money that would otherwise be spent on the meal to your not-for-profit. The advantage of this fundraising idea is that it: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Requires very little organising</li> <li>• Doesn't require a venue</li> </ul>

- Has very little financial outlay – all you're paying for is the cost of the invitations (and you could get a sponsor for this in return for a bit of advertising)
- Can be quite easy to obtain sponsorship.

Disadvantages are relatively few. The main drawback is that supporters who may already be contributing to the charity or cause may feel 'put upon' by another request for help.

It's also a fundraising idea you should be wary of overusing. It's okay as a witty, fun one-off activity, but at best this should be an annual event and possibly take place even less frequently.

To organise a Fast Party, find a couple or several friends to help write a Guest List and put together an eye-catching, well-designed and witty invitation (for example, 'Mr and Mrs Smith have pleasure in not requesting your company.....' or 'Guests of Honour will not include...').

You could also print an unappetising menu on the back of the invitation to show 'participants' that they've had a lucky escape. Include a vegetarian option.

Print the invitations on good quality card and include a self-addressed envelope or set up an online payment system so that participants can make their financial contribution easily – or you could just pop round to a supporters' house to collect their donation.

Make sure that cheques are made out to the charity or cause rather than to an individual, which could lead you open to criticism or, worse, accusations of fraud. Tickets to the party could be £5 per person, £8 per couple or £10 per family, whatever you think is appropriate for your supporters.

The advantage for 'participants' is that they don't have to do anything to participate. A Fast Party enables them to show their support for a cause at a relatively low cost without having to spend much effort, plan, or use up valuable time and effort.

In terms of return, most Fast Parties report at least 50% of invitees making a

	donation. Some may not wish to participate but may still be willing to make a donation. Finally, always send a short thank-you letter, telling donors how the funding will be used and the difference it will make!

Fundraising – Auctions of Promises	Auctions of Promises tend to be most successful when held on the back of another event when equipment and furniture is already available. A good Auction of Promises (50 lots takes about an hour to get through if you have a good auctioneer) can often raise £1,000 or more. An Auction of Promises is held on identical lines to a conventional auction, but the 'lots' are quite different. Each lot is a 'Promise', usually written on individual slips of paper and signed and dated by the person offering the promise. Promises are secured by asking around your contacts, private companies or prominent individuals in the community, such as the Mayor or your local MP. It's a good idea to have a wide selection of lots, for example, handmade goods, offers of help, vouchers, special opportunities and donated items. Example of promises can include:

- Theatre tickets
- Having your car(s) cleaned
- A free round of golf
- A week's holiday in a country cottage or an apartment overseas
- A free meal at a local restaurant

To organise an Auction of Promises, follow these steps:

1. Get together a small group of helpers or form a committee;
2. Decide on a date and a venue and apply for an occasional licence if you intend to run a bar, which could usefully increase the amount of funding raised;
3. Find an auctioneer who will ideally volunteer their time. If you can get one, a professional auctioneer will bring a sense of authenticity as well as ensuring the auction moves along at a brisk pace. If someone other than an experienced auctioneer wants to do it. It's essential they have a presence;
4. Proactively seek donations and promises. Make sure you get specific commitments from people or companies. Type up the promises and get them signed before the donor can pull out! Make it clear the offer is available for a limited period only, for instance 6 months or a year.
5. Prepare a catalogue showing images and the running order of all the lots which can be shown online or handed out at the event. It can help if you publish a reserve price for each lot to give participants an idea of where to begin bidding.

To keep things interesting:

Include a Surprise Auction: keep 2-3 popular lots in unmarked envelopes. Announce that the next lot is one of the unmarked promises, but bidders won't know which one it is. Participants make 'blind bids' and the successful bidder receives a surprise (it's important not to announce the lots until all have been auctioned).

	Include a Sealed Bid Auction: this is where you display the lots and make pens, papers and envelopes available. Bidders place their bids in sealed envelopes and place them in a box. The winners are announced at the end of the Promises Auction. It's worth bearing in mind that Sealed Bid Auctions don't generally raise as much funding. At the end of the Auction, try to encourage all successful bidders to pay before they leave. Thank the auctioneer with a bottle of wine and flowers. Make sure you have sufficient volunteers to clear up. After the event, thank your donors, volunteers and successful bidders and let them know how much has been raised and how the funds will be used. Ensure the Auction is reported in the local and social media (this can also be done in real-time during the event), together with the amount raised. An Auction of Promises is a great PR opportunity because you can gain additional publicity as people redeem their promises throughout the 6 months or year. Finally, think about making it an annual event to develop your commercial and public supporter base!

Gift Aid	When people donate to a registered charity or a Community Amateur Sports Club (CASC), it's from an income they've usually already been taxed on. 	therefore reclaim the equivalent of the basic rate of tax, increasing the value of the donation made. For every £1 donated, the charity can claim an extra 25p, so each £1 can become £1.25 for the cause. There are special rules for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Funds from sponsored challenges (for example: overseas treks or marathons);</li> <li>• Charity membership fees;</li> <li>• Church collections;</li> <li>• Selling goods on behalf of individuals (for example through a charity shop);</li> <li>• Charity events or to view charity property;</li> <li>• Charity auctions;</li> <li>• Volunteer expenses donated back to a charity or CASC; and</li> <li>• Funds raised through charities involved in running schools</li> </ul> For your contribution to qualify for Gift Aid, you must pay enough UK tax to cover the amount the charity will reclaim. You'll also need to make a Gift Aid declaration if you want the organisation to make the claim, and many charities will include this on their donation forms. The giver must confirm that this is a Gift Aid donation and that they have paid enough UK tax to cover the reclaimed amount. You can make a declaration that covers an individual donation, contributions made during the previous six years and all future gifts to an organisation. If you pay more than the basic rate of tax you can benefit from your donation as well. Donors paying 40 per cent tax can claim back the remaining tax for themselves by requesting a P810 Tax Review, or adding it to a Self Assessment tax return.

Charity Reserves – building resilience	A review by the Charity Commission has shown that less than a quarter of larger charities accurately reported the level of financial reserves they hold in their trustees' annual report. According to the Commission, its findings suggest an incomplete understanding of what reserves are, which it says could lead trustees to make poor decisions about their charity's finances. All registered charities must explain their policy on reserves in their trustees' annual report, and should state the level of reserves held as well as why they are held. Almost all of a sample of 106 charities with an income over £500,000 included at least a reference to their reserves policy in their annual report. However, less than a quarter gave the right reserves figure, based on the information in their accounts. A third of charities failed to include a figure at all, while many trustees appear to believe that reserves are the same thing as total unrestricted funds. As well as the report, the Commission has also published guidance to help charities understand what reserves are and how to develop and report on a reserves policy. It will be sending these to all charities in the sample where there were concerns over the absence or accuracy of the reserves figure in their annual reports.	https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/charities-and-reserves-cc19

Legacy Fundraising	Legacies can be a challenging area for charitable organisations because it can be a difficult and sensitive issue to broach, yet legacies are generally the biggest gifts received by charities from individuals. The Code of Fundraising Practice and its associated Rulebooks for Street, Door and Private Site Fundraising outline the standards expected of all charitable fundraising organisations across the UK. The Code sets out the law and best practice for a range of fundraising techniques. The standards were developed by the fundraising community through the work of the Institute of Fundraising (IoF) and Public Fundraising Association (PFRA), which has now merged with the Institute of Fundraising.	www.RememberaCharity.org.uk

Charity Governance	Charity trustees need to be able to identify the critical issues – the charity's purposes and plans, its solvency, its resilience and quality of governance – and to be able to review these at regular intervals.
