

Mayor of Bath remembers the loss of two sons of Mayor Alderman Harry Hatt in 1916

Friday 1 July 2016 – In Remembrance WW1

The Right Worshipful The Mayor of Bath (Councillor Paul Crossley) standing next to a plaque outside the Mayor's Parlour commemorating the fact that on the Field of Battle in France, the then Mayor Alderman Harry Hatt JP tragically lost his two sons, Captain Arthur Hatt on 1 July and Captain Edward Hatt on 26 August 1916.

Portrait of Hatt kindly loaned by Mrs Jennifer Hogg, daughter of Madeline & Eric Davis who owned Hatt & Co in The Corridor 1947-1989 where it hung in the office.